

Make a difference in the lives of school-age children and youth— become a Volunteer Tutor or Mentor!

Are you interested in learning how to support and mentor children and youth who have experienced trauma?

Children and youth living in CPAF's shelters are in need of homework help, support to develop healthy habits, and encouragement of their academic progress in a time of significant transition and change.

CPAF invites you to apply to volunteer as a tutor/mentor with school-age children/youth living with their families in shelter. Volunteers build relationships and work directly with individuals on a weekly basis for the duration of their stay.

Requirements: LiveScan Background check; TB test; volunteer application and interview; completion of CPAF's 65-hour Advocate Training

Visit www.nurturingchange.org/get-involved/volunteer for more information or to get the application process started.

Center for the Pacific Asian Family (CPAF) is a non-profit organization recognized nationally for its pioneering work in domestic violence and sexual assault. CPAF's multi-lingual and multi-cultural services include a 24-hour hotline, short term and long term shelters, counseling, case management, and supportive services. CPAF also provides violence prevention programs, outreach, education and advocacy on the issues of family violence and violence against women, focusing on the API community.
